

InterCert International has been founded by members of the International Project Management Association to certify project managers.

InterCert International is member of the international committee of certification bodies responsible for the development and harmonisation of the certification programmes.

Certificate

Level C

Registered Project Management Professional

Submitted to: Jørgen Meedom

InterCert International certifies that the above mentioned project manager meets the requirements which have been defined by the national and international project management associations.

InterCert International

Danish Project Management Association

date of issue: 09-03-2000
certificate no: DEN3015
expiring date: 01-02-2003

date of certification: 01-02-2000
date of recertification: 01-02-2003

The certification programme is approved by the International and National Project Management Associations.
The Certificate is recognized by The Project Management Institute, USA.

FORENINGEN FOR DANSK
Projektledelse

